Invitation to a day at the horse races on 25 March at the Grafenberger Rennbahn

You are cordially invited to a day at the horse races at the Grafenberg Galopp-Rennbahn, Rennbahnstraße 20, 40629 Düsseldorf, where there will also be a car exhibition organised by the Rheinische Post. The event will begin at 13.00, with the first race scheduled for about 14.00, with two further races planned for the day. A full timetable will be issued closer to the event, where dress will be smart casual.

We will meet at the Sektbar (Champagne Bar). There will be several courses of high quality canapés to eat and a dessert, as well as a glass of prosecco for everyone.

Limited parking is available at the race course. Public transport can also be used, the U73 to Burgmüllerstraße. From there are shuttle buses (Line 894) every 20 minutes, from one hour before the first race and after the last race back to the Haltestelle Burgmüllerstraße. Dogs are allowed, as long as they are kept on a lead.

The cost for the event will be EUR 44.00 for members plus one guest and EUR 53.00 for non-members. This includes the entrance fee to the race course which has been discounted to us as a group.

If you wish to attend, please email Trevor Kerslake (trevoriankerslake@gmail.com), with a copy to Paul Stheeman (paul@stheeman.de) and let Paul know if you need an invoice (some delays likely as Paul indisposed in early March).
